

C-BASE HELP AND INFORMATION

- Resources are available in the College of Education, HSSU library, the Center for Retention and Student Success in HGA Room 307, and the University-sponsored C-BASE classes.
- Resources include:
- <http://www.studyblue.com/#> - Make your own flashcards
- <http://www.teacherstestprep.com> - You must register
- <http://www.testprepreview.com/CBASE-Test.htm>
- <http://learningexpress.com> – See Ms. McCullough in the library
- <http://infotrac.galegroup.com/itweb/morenetharris> - See Ms. McCullough in the library
- Skills Bank Review – located in HGA 207, COE
- C-Base classes in spring and summer

WHEN AND WHERE

- The C-BASE is usually taken near the conclusion of the sophomore year after general education classes have been successfully completed (usually 60 hours).
- Applications for the C-BASE are available in HGA Rooms 307C, 307D and 307G.
- C-BASE dates are:
 - September 23, 2011, at noon December 2, 2011, at noon
 - January 27, 2012, at noon March 23, 2012, at noon
 - June 15, 2012, at noon