Harris-Stowe Chief Financial Officer and Interim President Joins Eagle Bank Board

ST. LOUIS, MO (February 3, 2014) – Constance G. Gully, interim president at Harris-Stowe University and the executive vice president for Business and Financial Affairs, will join the Eagle Bank and Trust Company Board of Directors effective January 28, 2014.

Gully brings a wealth of financial stewardship experience and dedication to the greater St. Louis community to the Eagle Bank board. Since August 2013 she has served as interim president at Harris-Stowe, responsible for the university's academic, fiscal and operational activities. Ms. Gully continues serving as the university's chief financial officer. She began her career at Harris-Stowe in 1998.

“Constance is an ideal addition to our board. She has a wonderful combination of financial acumen and valuable insight into the particular needs of educating the young people who are the very fabric of the community we serve,” said Mike Walsh, Eagle Bank and Trust president and CEO.

Gully is a licensed Certified Public Accountant who received her MBA at Lindenwood University and undergraduate Accounting degree at Illinois State University. Before joining Harris-Stowe she held audit and accounting positions at the City of St. Louis Comptroller's Office and two private CPA firms in the St. Louis area.

Harris-Stowe State University, located in midtown St. Louis, is a four-year institution that offers 15 degree programs in the areas of Accounting, Business Administration, Biology, Criminal Justice, Early Childhood Education, Elementary Education, Health Care Management, Hospitality and Tourism Management, Information Sciences and Computer Technology, Mathematics, Middle School Education, Educational Studies, Professional Interdisciplinary Studies, Secondary Education and Urban Affairs.
