Don & Heide Wolff Jazz Institute Kicks off
Fall Semester with Wing Fling Jazz Jam

WHO: Don & Heide Wolff Jazz Institute (WJI) at Harris-Stowe State University.

WHAT: The WJI Wing Fling Jazz Jam will kick off the fall semester as the first in a new series of musical performances hosted by the WJI. The mini-concert lunch entertainment will bring together great music and food with an all-you-can-eat option.

Performances include St. Louis blues and jazz vocalist Uvee Hayes and jazz/pop vocalist and HSSU adjunct instructor Tambra Cross. The event will also feature a jazz ensemble by accomplished student musicians of the Riverview Gardens School District.

WHEN: Wednesday, August 28, 2013, from 11 a.m.-1:30 p.m.

WHERE: Bosley Dining Hall on HSSU's campus. Admission to the concert is free; however there is a $4.95 per person charge for lunch in the dining hall. You must pay for lunch to be admitted.

CONTACT: For more information about this event or the WJI contact curator Ronn Nichols at (314) 340-5773 or via email at NicholsR@hssu.edu.
