Award Descriptions

Outstanding RA of the Year Award

The RA of the Year Award recognizes the Resident Advisor who, through effective programming and cultivation of meaningful relationships with his/her residents, has developed exceptional community on his/her floor.

Pillars of the Community Award

This award is presented to a student organization that makes service to its community a priority. This award will be given to an organization that has made an impact on the campus or community, and is serving as a positive role model, boosting courage, spirit and hope in other individuals.

National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC) Greek Life Woman of the Year Award

This award recognizes the individual who represents her chapter and/or the St. Louis Greek NPHC community through the values of Scholarship, Service, Leadership and Community. This person exemplifies the true meaning of being a member of a Greek lettered organization.

Cultural Event Award

This award is for the program that demonstrated leadership in increasing cultural awareness within the campus, thereby enabling students to appreciate the diversity within our society.

Collaborative Event Award

This award recognizes the outstanding program of two or more groups or organizations brought together to achieve a common goal, working in partnership.

Outstanding Community Service Award

The award recognizes the program organized to increase the community involvement of HSSU students.

New Program Initiative Award

This award recognizes the achievement of a significant success in a first-time program within the academic year. The organization is recognized for its use of innovative ideas and imaginative practices in the execution of this program.
