

Harris-Stowe State University's Accounting Students' Association (ASA) of Anheuser-Busch School of Business would like to share the following financial literacy information.

CashCourse

CashCourse is a financial management program.

When you're a student, it can feel like money is always tight. You've got bills, rent, and tuition to pay, and you want to have enough money for fun, too. So how can you get on the right path to a great financial future, while making your money count today?

CashCourse is your real-life guide to taking charge of your money. Our online personal finance tools help you build real-life-ready financial skills. Students at more than 800 schools across the country use CashCourse, and here's why:

1. It's easy to use. CashCourse offers you a customizable set of tools so you can make decisions that fit your life.
2. It's free from commercial ties. You can trust that the information on CashCourse is independent and noncommercial, and that we'll never try to advertise any products or services to you.
3. It's 100% FREE. We're independently funded by the National Endowment for Financial Education® (NEFE®), so CashCourse won't cost you a penny—ever.

Visit CashCourse at <http://www.cashcourse.org>.

For more information about how to manage your finances and making wise financial decisions, please view the presentation at the following link.

Money Matters 101: Financial Management Made Simple

By Dr. By Dr. Owolabi Tihamiyu, ACA, CFE, CIA, CPA

Chair, Accounting Department at Harris-Stowe State University