

Department of Mathematics and Natural Sciences

Mr. David Barnes

Instructor of Mathematics & Computer Science

BarnesD@hssu.edu

(314) 446-8299

HGA 317

Degrees Master of Arts

Held: Oakland University (Rochester, MI)
Mathematics

Bio: After spending 14+ years as a Systems Analyst and Programmer Analyst, I made the transition to education to pursue my passion for teaching. After teaching secondary and post-secondary mathematics in Detroit, MI, my family relocated to St. Louis in 2012 where I continued to teach high school and now at Harris-Stowe State University

Courses: Applied Calculus 1

Calculus & Analytic Geometry 1

Introduction to Computer

Programming

Basic Technical Mathematics

Pre-Algebra

College Algebra

Developmental Algebra

Algebra 2

Intermediate Algebra

Technical Mathematics

Developmental Mathematics

(High School) AP Statistics

(High School) AP Calculus

(High School) College Algebra
and Trigonometry

(High School) Algebra 2

(High School) Pre-Calculus

(High School) Calculus

Certifications: Michigan Secondary (7-12) Teaching Mathematics, Computer Science
Missouri Secondary (5-12) Teaching Mathematics Microsoft Office 2003