ELS Certificate Program

The ELS certificate program is meant for those learning English Language Studies. The ELS certificate program is offered in bilingual countries where English is an official language. English has become the global business language and is being taught all over the world. An ELS certificate program is what you need if you want to show your level of proficiency in English Language Studies in Canada or the USA.

An ELS certificate program will open the door to jobs in many part of the world. We are committed to providing highly educated, experienced instructors and a well-rounded curriculum that covers methods and approaches included in the average ELS certificate program.

These are a few things to remember about an ELS certificate program:
1. The ELS certificate program does not certify you to teach.
2. An ELS certificate program is sought by those for whom English is not their mother tongue but where English is one of their country's official language.
3. The ELS certificate program will allow you to work in bilingual countries where English is an official language.
4. The ELS certificate program is a proficiency certificate

This is a two-year study program that. Upon completion of 24 courses, students will be presented with a certificate of proficiency from Harris-Stowe State University.

Who is eligible?
Participants in the college’s ELSP may be any of the following persons:
- U.S.A. Citizens
- Permanent Resident Aliens
- Current recipients of an I-20 or an F-1 Visa

U.S. citizens and permanent resident aliens may enroll in the program prior to the beginning of any currently offered program module. All recipients of I-20’s and F-1 Visa’s must begin their program participation at the start of any academic semester, fall or spring. HSSU’s designated official – the college Director of Admissions, MUST issue all I-20’s.

Placement Test
A placement test is required prior to attending class.

Satisfactory Completion
Evidence of satisfactory completion of the program is a score of 500 on the TOEFL.

Cost:
The program can potentially cost $1,300.00 per semester or $650.00 per 8-week session. Each semester consists of two 8-week sessions. The student is required to enroll in at least two courses per session for timely completion of the certificate program.

Individual course cost is $225.00.

The cost does not include the cost of textbooks.

Registration:
Please contact Casandra Blassingame at 314-340-3543 to schedule an appointment for registration and advisement.

Participation in the colleges’ ELSP shall not constitute either admission to, or enrollment in the universities’ regular semester-length academic programs. Thus, it must be understood that all participants in the colleges’ ELSP, upon completion of the program, and who will desire to enroll in any of the universities’ regular degree-seeking program, must meet all of the admissions and enrollment requirements that are currently in effect.

ELS Course Descriptions

ELS 600: FOUNDATIONS FOR ELS I
This course is a beginning pre-academic ELS Level 0. This course provides basic functional practice in reading, writing, listening, and speaking for very low beginning ELS students.

ELS 601: FOUNDATIONS FOR ELS II
This course is the continuation of ELS 910A and is pre-academic ELS Level 0. This course provides basic functional practice in reading, writing, listening, and speaking for low beginning ELS students. It also provides preparation for placement in Level 1 ELS classes.

ELS 602: BASIC LISTENING AND SPEAKING I
In this introductory course, students receive guidance and extensive practice in listening at the word, phrase, and sentence level. Listening focuses on comprehension of verbal instructions, of vocabulary in context, and of ideas in sentences, monologs, and dialogs. Speaking focuses on the clear pronunciation of common words and phrases and the development of basic English pronunciation patterns of stress and intonation. This course includes 1-1/2 hours of laboratory work to facilitate skill development.

ELS 603: BASIC LISTENING AND SPEAKING II
This course continues the development of basic listening comprehension and speaking skills. Listening focuses on comprehension of oral instructions and questions in a series, of vocabulary in context, and of main ideas and details in sentences, monologs, dialogs, and short paragraphs. Speaking focuses on the clear pronunciation of common words and phrases and continues the development of basic English pronunciation patterns of stress and intonation. This course includes 1-1/2 hours of laboratory work to facilitate skill development.

ELS 604: BASIC GRAMMAR AND WRITING I
This course develops basic writing and grammar skills of standard written English. This course focuses on learning grammar and understanding the use of basic grammatical forms; students will practice and write simple sentences using correct word forms, word order, articles, prepositions, spelling and punctuation within their written compositions. This course includes 1-1/2 hours of laboratory work to facilitate skill development.

ELS 605: BASIC GRAMMAR AND WRITING II
This course develops basic writing and grammar skills of standard written English. The course focuses on the study and practice of simple and compound sentences including modification with adjectives, adverbs, and noun phrases, past and future verb tenses, comparatives, articles, prepositions, spelling and punctuation.

ELS 606: BASIC INTENSIVE GRAMMAR I
This is the first of three courses designed to help students develop their understanding of English grammar. In Basic Intensive Grammar I the focus is on the contextualized use and function of specific grammatical structures such as word forms, parts of speech, basic verb tenses, articles, phrases, and prepositions.

ELS 607: BASIC INTENSIVE GRAMMAR II
This is the second of three courses designed to help students develop their understanding of English grammar. In Basic Intensive Grammar I the focus is on the contextualized use and function of specific grammatical structures such as word forms, parts of speech, basic verb tenses, articles, phrases, and prepositions.

ELS 608: BASIC INTENSIVE GRAMMAR III

In Basic Intensive Grammar I the focus is on the conceptualized use and function of specific grammatical structures such as word form, parts of speech, basic verb tenses, articles, phrases, and prepositions.

ELS 609: BASIC READING AND VOCABULARY I
Students receive guidance and extensive practice in reading and comprehending stories, articles, and dialogs written in simple English. Students gain familiarity with the form and meaning of high-frequency vocabulary in context. This course includes 1-1/2 hours of laboratory work to facilitate skill development.

ELS 610: BASIC READING AND VOCABULARY II
This course emphasizes vocabulary expansion and comprehension of short paragraphs. The focus is on word forms, determining meaning for words in context, usage rules, and introduction of the use of basic affixes in the prediction of meaning. The relationship of meaning and grammatical form is introduced. Students develop dictionary skills using a monolingual English dictionary.
ELS 611: READING COMPREHENSION AND VOCABULARY III
This course focuses on idioms, recognition of word pair analogies, and synonyms in vocabulary development. It introduces the use of context in predicting meaning and the use of contextual clues in identifying the relationship of ideas within a paragraph. Students are introduced to concrete interpretation of factual material and inferences, and learn to identify paraphrases of sentences. The focus is on understanding phrases rather than individual words and on reading longer and more complex paragraphs than in ELS 610. Students become familiar with using the library.

ELS 612: READING COMPREHENSION AND VOCABULARY IV
This course focuses on determining meaning from context, word forms and variation in meaning, synonyms and connotation. Students are introduced to simple analysis of texts involving distinctions between fact and opinion. Students begin paraphrasing sentences and groups of sentences. Work continues from ELS 611 with identifying ideas in paragraphs and understanding the relationship of these ideas to one another. Work begun with inference in ELS 611 is continued. Students become familiar with the library and are required to do a book report.

ELS 613: READING COMPREHENSION AND VOCABULARY V
Students are introduced to abstract inferences such as propaganda and to making summaries and paraphrases of texts using techniques appropriate for second language learners. Students read articles that are longer and more complex than in ELS 134. The reading materials are varied to develop different reading strategies. Students learn to make predictions about readings through the organization and structure of texts.

ELS 614: ORAL COMMUNICATION I
Students use current vocabulary resources and syntactic knowledge and new idiomatic expressions to express ideas in conversational settings. Students observe and practice appropriate verbal and nonverbal behavior for conversing in English. The course emphasis is on the development of oral fluency in one-on-one and small group communication.

ELS 615: ORAL COMMUNICATION II
Students gain fluency in using appropriate verbal and nonverbal language and conversation management techniques for communicating in English. Students have ample opportunities to express their ideas in a variety of social, business, and/or academic situations. Idiomatic expressions are added to students' current vocabulary resources and syntactic knowledge. The role of culture in oral communication is addressed.

ELS 617: ACADEMIC LISTENING, PRONUNCIATION AND SPEAKING SKILLS
Listening focuses on understanding college lectures, news broadcasts and comprehension of sentences, dialogs, and paragraphs, and on discrimination of sound patterns in American English. Students are exposed to various styles and accents of speakers. Note-taking tasks focus on recognizing organizational patterns and outlining main ideas and supporting details through audio taped, videotaped, and live presentations. Pronunciation focuses on stress, intonation, rhythm, phrasing, and linking, as well as consonants and vowels. The course emphasis is on overall pronunciation improvement so as to make spoken Students will be introduced to discussion and oral presentation techniques and learn to overcome speech anxiety. Students receive guidance and extensive practice in oral production and listening skills. This course includes 1-1/2 hours of laboratory work to facilitate skill development.

ELS 616: SENTENCE DEVELOPMENT
This course develops student writing fluency through study and practice of compound and complex sentence patterns used in standard written English. This course focuses on using noun, adjective, and adverb clauses, modals, verbs in sequence, and pronoun reference.

ELS 619: COMPOSITION IN ELS
